

CALLING ALL YOUNG ARTISTS

JOIN THE YOUNG ARTIST COLLECTIVE THIS JULY

Blindspot Collective and Canyon Crest Academy invite performers ages 14 - 24 to participate in the Young Artist Collective this summer. With mentorship and direction from professional artists, the Young Artist Collective will present OUTRUN THE WOLF, a new bluegrass musical written by Lilia Porter and featuring music by Breaking Grass.

Applicants of all experience levels will be considered. Rehearsals will take place in Downtown San Diego, easily accessible by public transportation. Performances and technical rehearsals to be held at Canyon Crest Academy.

Program Dates: July 6th - August 1st, 2026

ABOUT THE SHOW:

In the shadowed hills of Harlan, the woods are alive with whispers. Witches, wolves, and warnings passed down like gospel. Nellie Dee has spent her whole life trying to be “good,” trying to stay safe, trying to keep her anger buried.

Told through the discography of bluegrass band Breaking Grass and eerie folklore, OUTRUN THE WOLF is a haunting new folk musical about power, myth, survival, and what it means to run toward yourself instead of away.

Directed by: Blake McCarty, Music Direction by: Mike Reyes, and Choreographed by: Aisha Reddick
