

BLINDSPOT COLLECTIVE PRESENTS
A POP-UP PERFORMANCE
INSPIRED BY YOUTH ACTIVISM

GOOD TROUBLE

OCTOBER 2020

VISIT WWW.BLINDSPOTCOLLECTIVE.ORG TO LEARN MORE

LET'S JOIN HANDS IN SOLIDARITY

We're asking local organizations like yours that are engaged in racial justice, immigrant rights, gender equality, indigenous justice, LGBTQ+ rights, and the pursuit of dignity for all people, to partner with us on these upcoming free events. In exchange, we simply ask that you share the details of this unique opportunity for San Diegans to be a part of something that unifies us around a message of solidarity and resilience. Learn more about the event here.

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

1. Share the information about the show with your network via email.
2. Promote the event on your social media platforms. Feel free to use these graphics.
3. Organize members of your community to participate at a convenient location for you:
 - Saturday, October 17 at 11am: Waterfront Park in Downtown San Diego
 - Saturday, October 17 at 4pm: Linda Vista Community Park in San Diego
 - Sunday, October 18 at 11am: Mountain View Park in Southeast San Diego
 - Sunday, October 18 at 4pm: Rohr Park in Chula Vista
 - Saturday, October 24 at 11am: Kate Sessions Park in Pacific Beach
 - Saturday, October 24 at 4pm: Kimball Park in National City
 - Sunday, October 25 at 11am: Ellen Browning Scripps Park in La Jolla
 - Sunday, October 25 at 4pm: Teralta Park in City Heights
 - Sunday, November 1 at 12pm: Balboa Park in San Diego

WHAT WE NEED FROM YOU

1. Send us your logo and website so that we may acknowledge you on social media. We will also list you as a community partner on the project's webpage.
2. Bring your organization's flyers to the event for audiences to learn more.
3. After the show we'll invite you to share about your important work with the audience.

Contact: If you have questions or need additional support, email Catherine Hanna Schrock, Director of Community Development, at catherine@blindspotcollective.org

Blindspot Collective is a 501c3 theatre company that produces radically inclusive programming at the intersection of advocacy, education, and entertainment. We work collaboratively to create transformative theatre that amplifies marginalized voices, illuminates untold stories, bridges disparate experiences, and energizes vulnerable communities.